Social Affairs of Winter Season

Number of Pleasant Events on January Calendar Enliven Rainy Days

January may be the dead of winter but it is alive with social pleasantries that bring congenial gronps together and make the winter hours take swift wing. This week was replete with interesting and enjoyable events.

Birthday Party

A jolly birthday party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hansen Tuesday to celebrate the birthday of the popular wife of our well-known musician and poultryman. About seventeen guests from here and from the city were entertained and the evening was one long to be remembered. Cards, dancing and music were features of a delightful evening which culminated in a fine supper at midnight. Toasts and congratulations were showered upon Mrs. Hansen whose winsome personality has endeared her to a large circle of friends.

Ladies Aid Meeting

The H. J. Wicker home was the gathering place for the Congregational Ladies Aid Tuesday and an enjoyable meeting was held. Besides their quilting, the ladies devoted some time to discussing details of their playlet "Our Art From Boston" which is shortly to be given at the Don Theatre for the benefit of the Trustees of the church and their work.

Those in the cast will be Mesdames C. Burlingame, A. Bordson, A. Luce, H. Appleton, T. Price, M. Rowell and Miss Alta Rice; all these ladies being particularly well fited to their respective parts in the comedy.

After reviewing the progress of the playlet, and discuesing repapering of the church, the ladies partook of refreshments which were served most daintily in Mrs. Wicker's artistic dining room.

Parishoners Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the parishoners of Trinity Church was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Campbell, Tuesday evening. After a business session "500" was inagurated and those who did not play cards were otherwise pleasantly entertained by the tactful hostess. The prize winner at cards were Mrs. Von Hacht and G. H. Hotz while Mrs. Stofen and Harry Foster won consolation prizes.

The evening concluded with refreshments which were partaken of amid much refreshing repartee and merriment. At midnight the parishoners bade each other good night according Mr. and Mrs Campbell much appreciation for their delightful entertainment.

Coming Events

The Eastern Star ladies will hold the first meeting of the year next Thursday night and Mrs Bordson, the new Worthy Matron, will preside. A committee consisting of Mrs Gale, Mrs. Whitmore and Mrs. Bordson is arranging a social time with music and refreshments to follow the regular session and a very pleasant time and large attendance is anticipated.

The Native Daughters will have their annual installation and banquet on the fourth Monday in the month. Mrs. L. H. Green will install the officers whose personnel is the same as last year with the exception of Miss D. Mamori, outside Sentinel and Miss Myrtle Hardy, Marshal. Woodmen Hall will be the scene of this interesting event in local fraternal circles.

Play Bridge

The Bridge Club and all the substitute players of the last series of games were entertained by Mrs. H. J. Wicker at her handsome home Thursday afternoon. Five tables participated in the play and the keen contest which prevailed resulted in Mrs.O.B. Shaw carrying off the first prize,an exquisite handpainted nut-bowl. Mrs. H. F. Bates captured the second prize, a handpainted cup and saucer. Mrs. Appleton took the consolation prize. After the game the tables were set with handsome doilies and china and the dantiest refreshments were served. The hostess was much complimented upon the success of her afternoon. Those present were Mesdames G. H. Hotz, O. B. Shaw, W. B. Hays, R. L. Watt, P. N, Stofen, H. Appleton, H. Pauli, C. Burlingame, H. Bates, A. Bates, L. Lutgens, H. Gottenberg, H. Wicker, M. Clewe, S. Haven, Misses Pemberton, Clewe, Shotner, Stofen, and Burchard.

EXPERTS WILL VIEW PLAZA TODAY

To Arrive With Plans All Prepared Detailing Beautification Scheme

Professor Stephens and assistant Navon of the University of California will be in Sonoma today to go over our historic plaza with the idea of outlining their beautification scheme to the Plaza committee of the City Trustees and a delegation of the Womans Club so instrumental in securing the services of this valuable department of the University. The gentlemen who have the work in charge were here some time ago gathering data on the ground and the plans they are to unfold for the beautification of our eight acre park will be of great interest as the architects were impressed with the possibilities of plans harmonizing with our historic and picturesque background and have kept this feature in mind.

Mrs. Theo Richards was in San Francisco Wednesday on business connected with the building of the new Hotel at Agua Caliente Springs.

ATTACK ON WIFE COSTS MONEY

Judge Small Fines M. Vigne $250 For Assault

Judge Small has gone on record as dealing out meet and proper punishment to wife beaters and on Wednesday in his court fined Marcellin Vigne, the wealthy money lender, $250 with the alternative of 125 days in jail for assault upon his wife, Rosalie Vigne.

Constable Murray swore to the complaint at the instance of the woman and her neighbors and upon the refusal of Vigne to come to court, a bench warrant was issued for him.

After hearing the evidence recited by the wife under oath who testified to the treatment she suffered at the hands of her spouse, Judge Small imposed the fine with the admonishment that should the offense be repeated he would sentence the defendant to six months in the County jail.

Vigne had his check book with him and promptly paid the fine.

He has been married to his present wife about fifteen years and together they accumulated much wealth in the sheep raising business near Marysville.

Social Afternoon at Club

Mrs. E. M. Chase will be hostess for the very interesting afternoon at the Womans Club next Friday. Miss Burchard of the Educational department of the club has arranged for the talk by Mrs. F. T. Duhring on the La Lomita colony of Mrs Tingeley at San Diego. Professor Borst will speak on the English poets of the present King George's reign also on contemporary American poets of recent recognition with commentary and quotation from the most famous of the two groups.

The two themes will be very interesting and instructive.

Mrs Chase will serve tea and the meeting will be very delightful.

The many friends of the talented violinist, Frank Knolle will regret to hear that he has been quite ill and under the care of Dr. Gobar.

BOY FARMER CRITICALLY ILL

George Cooper, Prize Winner, Stricken With Spinal Meningitis

George Cooper, the boy prize winner in the Agricultural Contest who lately returned from a trip across the continent, was stricken with spinal meningitis this week and has been lying critically ill at the home of his mother. The news came as a profound shock to the community which has been so kindly interested in the future of this High School boy and has presaged great success for him after the fine showing he made with a record potato yield and the commendation he merited from the Agricultural department of the University. Young Cooper was awarded the prize trip from this district and went with the other prize winners to Washington D. C. They were honored at every city enroute and Sonoma's representative being a keen observer reaped wonderful experiance from the opportunity.

Inquiries at the Cooper home have shown George's great popuiarity and his physician, Dr. Thomson now states that there is an improvement in his condition. He is the son of Alma Carmer Cooper.

CLEVER NEW SHOWS AT FETTERS

Sonoma Valley and vicinity is soon to be treated to a fine series of free vaudeville shows at Fetters Springs and a clever bill will be presented every Saturday night. Some of the best performers on the circuits will appear and the management is sparing no expense to provide entertainment that will be worth coming a long ways to see. The vaudeville treat will be supplimented by the ever popular dances for which the best rag time music will be provided. Fetters will be a bigger drawing card than ever with its new entertainment features.

Fred Hansen, of the Sonoma Valley Hatchery, returned from a short trip to San Francisco one day this week.

BEST PLUM ON CITY TREE

Marshal's Job Makes That of City Attorney and City Clerk Look Like a Mote in the Sunbeam

In the light of the present discussion as to the raise of salaries for City Clerk Gottenberg and City Attorney Cowgill it is interesting to discover that they were stirred to action by the realization that the City Marshal has the only real juicy plum on the municipal tree. In 1883 the salaries of these officials were fixed and as Sonoma was then in its swaddling clothes they were consistent with its infancy. As time went on apace the marshal was enabled to make his job quite lucrative for he collected fees and percentages and as the amount of taxes and number of licenses increased his pickings became better and better. The City Attorney and Clerk however found themselves taking on more and more duties and responsibilities as Sonoma grew from a puny infant into a proud majority, adorned itself with a city hall, sewage system, streets, side walks and school improvements yet their salary warrants continued to look as though they came out of the five and ten cent store.

The Marshal's plum, like a Burbank creation, flourished and grew although the taxpayer still is under the delusion that the $15 allowed every month is all the City Marshal gets but with the delusion is the snare —for the dog catcher's fees and the other licenses all net a substantial sum

Last year the figures read like this:

Licenses collected 427 at 25c	$106.75
5 per cent of taxes col.	419.08
Salary	180.00

$1.00 for each arrest.

25c for each service of summons or subpoena.

One can see at a glance that the City Marshal's lucrative possibilities would excite the envy of less fortunate office holders. Why look up a statute instead of a canine and why write up voluminous reports when our brother official need only serve and wait?

BIGELOW FIGURES IN PROBE

Permit For Garage on San Francisco Property Thought to Have Been Irregular

The granting of a permit to erect a garage on the property of J. K. Bigelow at Bush and Jones Streets San Francisco in the face of protest and petition from surrounding property owners led this week to a Grand Jury investigation in that city as to what inducements were held out to certain Supervisors to grant a permit. Contingent on the securing of the permit was the renting of Bigelow's property for $750 per month and when his agents, Walter Sullivan and Frank Sutton found that their tenant, Roy L. Jurez, was liable to forfeit his lease on the Bigelow property if he could not get the garage permit, there was some tall scouring which resulted in the alleged payment of money to overcome the opposition.

Just what money was paid and by whom and whether or not certain Supervisors "sold out" is what the Grand Jury probe was ordered for. J. K. Bigelow and other witnesses were summoned before that body Tuesday night.

Bigelow testified that he was asked to pay money but refused.

The Grand Jury not being able to get any tangible proof on which to base indictments, dropped the investigation which was instigated by Supervisor McLeran.

SONOMA'S LIBRARY IS REMEMBERED

Miss Zarifa Howe Presents Resolution Framed by Mexican War Veterans to Trustees

Miss Zarifa Howe, youngest daughter of our revered pioneer Hon. Robt. Howe who recently passed away has presented the Library with the Resolutions framed by the Mexican War Veterans commending the fine entertainment accorded them upon their visit here in 1887.

The resolutions were in the keeping of Mr. Howe the president of the day and he cherished them up to the day of his death.

Realizing that there were many other participants who would regard with pride the Veterans acknowledgement of thanks to the citizens of Sonoma Valley, Miss Howe thoughtfully made the gift to the Sonoma Library.

The Index-Tribune of July 20th 1887 says.

At a regular meeting July 14th. 1887 of the Associated Veterans of the Mexican War the following resolutions were adopted by a rising vote.

RESOLVED, That the Associated Veterans of the Mexican War return thanks to the citizen of Sonoma for the kind invitation given to us to join with them in celebration of the last Fourth of July Anniversary and desire to assure them of our appreciation of the generous hospitality extended to us on that occasion.

RESOLVED, That to the ladies of Sonoma who gave to the Veterans so enthusiastic a welcome, and who specially honored us by their bright presence and graceful service around the banquet table, we send with the warmest thanks this message, that the Veterans will long and gratefully cherish a recollection of the hours which were made so agreeable by their hearty greeting, and their many charming acts af courtesy.

RESOLVED, That the President through the Secretary of our Association, send a copy of these resolutions to Hon. Robert Howe, chairman of the Sonoma City Committee of arrangements and for publication.

Y. M. I. BANQUETS GRAND OFFICERS

Popular Order Gives Fine Affair and Grand President Schwamm's Speech Makes Deserved Impression

The Young Mens Institute received the regular annual visit of the Grand officers of the order Thursday night and gave a fine banquet in their honor at the lodge rooms.

The visiting officers were Grand President A. Schwamm of Los Angeles, Grand Vice President T. P. O'Brien of San Francisco, Grand Director Chas. Oliva of San Francisco, Past Grand President John P. Denehy of San Francisco.

Grand District Deputy Gobar of Petaluma District, who is also President of Sonoma Council, was master of ceremonies. The speech making around the banquet table brought out some splendid talks and much clever repartee. The finest address was made by Grand President Schwamm, who held his listeners spell bound with his silvery tongued oratory. He discoursed on the growth and the merits of the Young Mens Institute and awakened an enthusiasm and interest that will have far reaching effect on the council.

Rev. Father Comerford gave a very pleasing address of welcome.

After listening to remarks by all the Grand officers, President Gobar called on Messrs. Mori, Oliva and Deneby for some vocal numbers which proved very clever.

The committee on arrangements consisted of Messrs. Dal Pogetto, Batchelor and Mori and the banquet was par excellence.

As Grand President Schwamm could not make convenient train connections at Petaluma a machine was sent over from here for him so that he could be in attendance. He arrived on good time at the banquet hall.

REJECTED BIDS ON BRIDGE

The City Trustees in special session opened bids on the Washington street bridge but rejected all, which they considered too high.

Following were the bids received E Pinelli $1,950 Bordwell & Zimmerman of Calistoga, $1,900 Macral & Layaz of San Francisco $2,100 and Gildersleive & Co of Napa $1,894. Considering the amount which is evidently necessary to build the bridge the trustees favor waiting until more funds are available and the necessary repairs to the streets are first taken care of.

Leap Year

Now is the time for women to demonstrate their skill at selecting life partners. Leap year endows them with the privlege of popping the question and since they are so prone to criticize the men and the kind of matches they make it is wise that we watch the selections made in 1916 by the fair sex. It would also be interesting to keep tab on these matches and to discover how they effect the subsequent divorce records. In these days of eugenics women will have a good opportunity to consider the betterment of the race. They should also take strict account of the financial fitness of prospective life partners. Every woman knows that money matters are one of the greatest bugaboos in matrimonial history wherefore she should avoid leading any man to the altar unless she can amply supply herself with extras and can assure her mate that there will be no bill for Easter hat or head gear for the other three or four present millinery seasons; that she will not demand gasoline or automobile catalogues; that she will revere the wash-board; that she will never question the amount he spends on smoking or the time he spends in snoring and can perform the miracle of putting $75 per month out of his $75 salary in the bank in his name. Under such a plan and with so many stumbling blocks to twain harmony removed, we should have a matrimonial millennium—the lawyers who specialize on the quick and speedy route of dissolution would go into the ministry; affinities would go to work; alimony would be money kept in the family for the regular visitations of the stork; "I told you so" would be a forgotten expression. Let us by all means encourage such an ideal plan as is possible under Leap Year's benevolent sway.

Progress of Sufferage

The sufferage committee in the United States Senate at Washington has reported favorably on the Anthony bill which recommends national sufferage for women. One strong point brought out in the report is that "they are subject to the laws, are taxed for the support of government and subject with the men to a common political destiny." The latter phrase is fraught with intensive significance in the light of the present European catastrophe where women are bearing the brunt of disaster and where for generations to come they must suffer for the calamity into which they have been plunged by the men who made the moves on the political checkerboard which led to the jumping in of militarism and its consequent denouement.

In times of national disaster women have ever proved heroic and they share without shirking the destiny of the country they call their own. They may be regarded as irresponsible but as a matter of fact they are held responsible before the laws and they take on the responsibility of the well being of the land whether in perfecting the arts of peace or making the sacrifices required by war. This is a strong reason for endowing them with every privelege to exercise their right to participate in events which as an aggregate make history.

Unfortunatety it has been the type of woman who put "rage" in sufferage that has kept the cause back and made it a subject for comic suppliments instead of strictly congressional record.

Europe's present experience is enlightening every one in the United States to the value of women as citizens and their influence and advice in times of political crisis will soon be given recognition.

That Extra Session

The result of the extra session of the Legislature shows that the Governor knows how to make Johnson's will take the place of the peoples will, and yet his old slogan is "let the people rule." He is not only a past master but a present master in machine politics. Partisan registration is what the people want and now after paying for the extra session they find it was not convened for their benefit. When we eliminate appointees of the Governor serving in the legislature and do not have so many plants who play in with the hand that feeds them on fat political plums, we will come nearer getting the kind of representation the people want and should have.

A bill favoring the compensation of those to be legislated out of business by the prohibitionists is nothing but fair, but how about the thousands who will suffer indirectly as a result of such drastic enactments as are favored by the "drys"? Where will they get off?

MOOSE HAVE JOLLY EVENING

The Moose Social Club is certainly a social aggregation all right and lose no opportunity for good fellowship in the true acceptance of the term. The spirit is shared in by the Santa Rosa order, with whom Sonoma is on such good visiting terms that Monday evening a big and talented bunch came down from the County Seat to be the guests of the Sonoma boys. Nothing was left undone to make the evening a success.

Mine host Ciucci prepared a fine banquet and the "eats" were only rivaled by the clever program numbers with which the feast was interspersed.

During the evening Ralph Salisbury gave a whistling solo, Prof. David Glickman gave a piano number, and Oscar Smyth gave a dialogue. W. H. Clores and Earl Showers were the program committee. A vote of thanks was given the social club of the Moose for the banquet and the good time. The trip was made in machines from the Santa Rosa Taxi Co. Among those who came over were Ralph Salisbury, W. H. Ives, Frank Muther, Jr., Frank Gibson, Harry Galbraith, Earl Showers, Oscar Smith, Jack Fumsoli, Chas. Arrigoni, David Glickman, Lawrence Mack, Ray Leggett and others.

WOMANS CLUB NOTES

Despite the rain the Woman's Club held its regular business session Friday, Jan. 7th and those present were elated to hear that the supper served by the club, in connection with the Grand Ball given on New Years Eve by the Sonoma Band, had netted $60.50. This sum was added to the building fund, which is now nearing the $1200 figure.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded Mr. Koenig, who had so generously aided the ladies in every way possible.

It is expected that in the near future planting will begin in the Plaza in accordance with the plans recently prepared by the Horticultural Department of the State University.

Friday, Jan. 21st the club will be addressed by Professor Borst of the High School, on "The Georgian Poets." The usual social hour was enjoyed.

OLDER BUT STRONGER

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years.

To be stronger when older, keep your blood pure and rich and active with the strength-building and blood-nourishing properties of Scott's Emulsion which is a food, a tonic and a medicine to keep your blood rich, alleviate rheumatism and avoid sickness. No alcohol in Scott's.

AUTO MAIL SERVICE DELAYED

New Rural Delivery Postponed Until the Last of March

A second postponement in the inaguration of Sonoma Valley's new auto rural mail delivery has been ordered by the Postoffice Department. An Inspector made the trip over the route sometime ago and upon his own observation and the advice of Postmaster Wagnon who advocated postponement until improved road and weather conditions were possible the starting of the new service has been announced for March 31 instead of January 15th.

This will give the successful applicant for motor rural carrier (who has not yet been announced) time to qualify and make ready for his new job. Better service will be possible after heavy storms have passed and roads are in better shape.

WINTER CALLS FORTH PROTEST

The heavy rains and severe cold of the past two weeks have stirred up protest from our towns people who have encountered some of the discomforts of the muddy streets and side walks in the vicinity of the depot grounds. The attention of the City Dads has been called to the side walks which were almost inundated by the rains and looked more suitable for web feet than pedestrians.

The Street Committee explain that the work of improving the streets in question, has been ordered but that as the grade has not been yet established there has been a delay in proceeding with the improvement

HORSE MEET INTERESTS SONOMA

Horse flesh is always an interesting topic in and around Sonoma but all lovers of the noble animal and the sport of Kings refuse to sympathize with the idea of horse meat. It is different however with horse meet and live events promised on the local race track this season are already being anticipated with keen interest by the sporting contingent.

Our race track will be put in shape after the heavy rains and the Sonoma Driving Club will devote itself to preparing a card and an opening day that will go down in racing annals.

Grape Growers To Convene

The grapegrowers and those interested in the wine industry of Sonoma County are to convene at one of the most important meetings ever held in this county, at Healdsburg, Saturday, January 15th, at two o'clock p. m.

The meeting is called at the request of C. E. Humbert, President, and by reason of important matters brought before the State Convention recently held in San Francisco, which was one of the largest, most enthusiastic meetings ever held in the State.

Everything looks bright for the future of the viticultural industry everything indicating clearly an advance in the price of grapes, since wine at the present time is being held firm with good offers.

At this meeting one of the most important matters to be considered will be the adoption of means to educate and bring about an aggressive campaign in opposition to proposed Prohibition measures. A large attendance will undoubtedly be present.

VETERAN AGENT IS COMPLIMENTED

In recognition of faithful service while in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company, M. F. Mullen of El Verano, the veteran station agent has received his annual pass for himself and family for 1916. The tribute to Mr. Mullen, who has been retired on pension for his efficient and honorable service in the company is of interest to a wide circle of friends who can see in what regard Mr. Mullen is held by the following letter which accompanied the annual.

San Francisco, Calif. Dec., 20, 1915

Dear Comrade:

It affords me great pleasure to hand you, with the personal compliments of our President, Mr. William Sproule, Class "A" annual No. 6875, for yourself and family, good for transportation for the year 1916 over the Company's lines between Ogden, El Paso and Portland You will note this is granted "For Faithful Service," and I trust you will accept it in evidence of the Company's continued interest in your welfare.

This annual includes transportation on the ferries, local travel on the Peninsula, and on the Company's river steamers to Sacramento and return. For ferry travel, you must present it at the General Ticket office at the Ferry Building, Oakland Pier, Palace Hotel, or Flood Building, whichever is most convenient, and secure a free commute book of 60 tickets, which will be duplicated during the year whenever necessary, or if you are traveling daily you should present it monthly in advance, for monthly ferry commute.

If you have other wholly dependent members of your family for whom you have been securing transportation, trip passes for them will still be granted whenever needed, by applying to me direct, stating your needs.

Congratulating you and trusting the above is thoroughly understood and if not you will communicate with me, and that you will find it convenient to be a more frequent visitor at the Club Rooms I remain

Cordially yours,
A. F. HESS,

FIRE ALARM STARTLES TOWN

Hunter-Hanger home is Menaced by Blind Fire Wednesday Morning

The town was thrown into a state of excitement Wednesday morning by the clanging of the fire bell and the announcement that the handsome Hunter-Hanger home was on fire. Volunteer firemen hastened to the scene with Sonoma's fire fighting apparatus and upon their arrival found that a blind blaze was eating its way between the partitions which had been overheated from the living room stove. With the aid of Henry Wicker's chemical extinguisher the fire which was confined to the interior studding was put out and small damage resulted.

Had it smouldered until night and reached a draught, serious consequences could not have been averted.

SONOMA LAND OWNER TO ADMINISTER

Applications for letters of administration on the estate of Rosalie Heyneman, who died last August, was made to the Superior Court today by Mrs. Lolita Schweitzer, 3452 Jackson street, daughter of the decedent.

The administration of the estate is sought for the purpose of collecting the value of a life insurance policy taken out on the life of Herman Heyneman and which was permitted to lapse. The policy has a withdrawal value of $3,026. —Bul etin

Mrs. Schweitzer is the owner of the $85,000 Wickersham ranch near here.

J. M. ALLISON SELLS RANCH

The fine 114 acre ranch of J. M. Allison near Agua Caliente has been sold to Berkeley residents named Chugg. Mr. Allison has removed to Marysville where he has purchased an alfalfa ranch. J. McCleneghan has leased the Allison place from the new owners.

The Will Clewes are rejoicing at the birth of another son which was born in Santa Rosa the latter part of last week.

Miss Emily Poppe went down to San Francisco Sunday afternoon.

In refering to the raises in salary requested by Sonoma's City Attorney and City Clerk a contemporary names former City Attorney Robert Poppe as being in line for the increase. Unfortunately Mr. Poppe has lately resigned and will not come in for the fat sinecure, although had he been less philanthropic he might have emphasized in his regime the value of his talent and the fact that City Attorneys in cities of Sonoma's class must dine and keep humidors

The present City Attorney, Mr. Cowgill, walks to and from his ranch everyday so his appetite is as sharp as his legal acumen and he has not been slow to let the City Dads know about it.

FIRST NATIONAL ELECTS DIRECTORS

The annual meeting of the stock holders of the First National Bank was held this week and the following directors elected for the ensuing year, Fred Batto, President; N. J. Heggie, Vice President and Cashier; L. H. Green, G. Proletti, A. B. Brandt. The review of the financial status of the concern shows it to be in a flourishing condition.

Director Brandt succeeded to the vacancy caused by the death of Henry Rubke.

After 40 years service, President John P. Overton of the Santa Rosa bank has resigned the presidancy and James R. Edwards, well known here, will succeed him.

There was no response to the call for a meeting by the Chamber of Commerce relative to getting the "movies" here. J. K. Bigelow is credited with offering land, but as there is so much rivalry and competition for the picture people, it is not likely that we can land them unless we launch a vigorous campaign.

Jack Kinsella has been up from San Rafael completing his contract on the new Grammar School building. All the workmen will shortly be through and the building be ready for acceptance by Trustees Bill, Dresel and Thomson. The equipment, such as new desks and shades will then be installed and a date decided upon for formal public inspection and dedication.

The Supervisors have reconsidered the recommendation in regard to the Cotati highway route and decline to proceed with acquiring rights of way until further investigation is made of proposed route which it is said will entail more expense and give less satisfaction than anticipated. Protests from the improvement clubs have been instrumental in influencing the supervisors to further inquiry.

VINEBURG

Miss Jessie Heiser was the guest of Mrs. Arthur Batto on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bundschu of Rhine Farm were the guests of friends in the Bay cities several days this week.

Section foreman Charles Saylor and his section crew were working on the new road at Batto's spur on Wednesday last.

Wm. Clewe one of Sonomas' most popular merchants was exchanging greetings with his Vineburg friends on Wednesday last. Sure "Willie" looked very happy and contented and we do not blame him. There's a reason.

Mr. Emilo Batto has returned from his trip to Seattle and will return to his Vineburg home in a few days.

Anton Baccala of Sonoma visited Vineburg on Tuesday.

We have often noticed that the Burg has been more lively than it is at the present time, but we suppose it is on account of the inclement weather.

Sonoma Druggist Pleases Customers

James McElney reports customers greatly pleased with the QUICK action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. This simple remedy drains the old foul matter from the bowels so thoroughly that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach. It is so powerful that it is used successfully in apendicitis. Adler-i-ka never gripes and the INSTANT action is surprising.

PAID TO GET THE GOODS.

Consequently He Felt That They Were His by Right.

A claim once made on the explorer Cameron in the neighborhood of Gaboon, Africa, shows the weirdly peculiar workings of the native African's mind. Some of Cameron's possessions proved unduly attractive to a native, and he determined on transferring the ownership to himself. He accordingly paid another native $200 to procure for him the coveted goods.

The assistant took the money and did his best to earn it, but Mr. Cameron had perversely locked up the very articles that the fellow's employer had set his heart upon. The man could not carry out his bargain, and neither did he feel that he could part with the money. Therefore he ran off with it.

What more logical than that the man who was the loser by $200 should expect the explorer to make the loss good? This he assuredly did expect.

He went to Mr. Cameron and told him the story, demanding in the first place the $200 which he (Cameron) by locking up his goods had compelled the complainant to lose and, secondly, the actual price of the goods themselves, which but for these arbitrary measures would now have been in his possession. It is not stated that his expectations were realized.—London Spectator.

EARLY BANK RUNS.

The Dutch Fleet In the Thames Started One In London In 1669.

The first run of which we have any account in the history of banking occurred in the year 1667. It was quickly stopped. At that date the bankers of England were the goldsmiths, who had a short time before begun to add banking to their ordinary business and had become very numerous and influential.

In 1669 the Dutch fleet sailed up the Thames, blew up the fort at Sheerness, set fire to Chatham and burned some ships of the line. This created the greatest consternation in London, especially among those who had intrusted their money to the bankers, for it was known that the latter had advanced large sums to the king for public purposes, and it was rumored that now the king would not be able to pay the money. To quell the panic a royal proclamation was issued to the effect that payments by the exchequer to the bankers would be made, as usual.

In 1671 there was another run on the London banks, when Charles II. shut up the exchequer and refused to pay the bankers either principal or interest of the money which they had advanced. On this occasion many of the banks and their customers were ruined.—London Standard.
